Mystery Creek Road Closes to Vehicular Travel

The Kenai National Wildlife Refuge announces that Mystery Creek Road will be closed on Sunday November 11th, 2007 to public vehicular travel. Road conditions have become generally poor due to low temperatures and accumulated surface water. The road has remained open approximately one week later than most years due to minimal snow cover and the late season moose hunt.

Mystery Creek Road may be opened to snowmachine access after December 1st, by public notice, if there is adequate snow cover to protect underlying vegetation.

Please contact Kenai National Wildlife Refuge Headquarters on Ski Hill Road in Soldotna, (907) 262-7021, for further details.
